

A2 / AS Religious Studies Day at Chichester Cathedral
Tuesday November 17th 2009, £9 a student, teachers free.

Arrival 9.30 for 10.00
Keynote: 10.00-10.40
The Chancellor Canon Anthony Cane
Evil and the Justice of God
Vicars' Hall
10.45 - 11.30 Seminar sessions
The Precentor, Canon Tim Schofield: 'Miracles' The Education Annexe	Revd. Dr. Paul Collins, UC: 'Free will?' Vicars Hall	Mrs Rachel Moriarty: Does science prove that God is redundant? The Alexandra Room	The Chancellor: 'Evil and suffering' The Education Centre
BREAK 11.30 - 11.45 Vicars' Hall - complimentary tea / coffee
11.45 - 12.40
Caroline Soar: Do people have the right to die? (W. Sussex P.C.T.) with Canon Anthony Cane a Christian perspective
12.45 - 1.30 Seminar sessions - as above
The Precentor, Canon Tim Schofield: 'Miracles' The Education Annexe	Revd. Dr. Paul Collins, UC: 'Free will?' Vicars Hall	Mrs Rachel Moriarty: 'Does science prove that God is redundant?' The Alexandra Room	Cathedral Guides Cathedral Art Tour - changing images of God and Jesus Collecting from VH
LUNCH 1.30 - 1.55 Vicars' Hall available
Panel Discussion: 1.55 - 2.30
Panel Discussion: Chaired by The Dean, the Very Reverend Nicholas Frayling Panel: The Chancellor, Caroline Soar, Rachel Moriarty and Dr Paul Collins. End of the day
2.40 - 3.10 Optional explanation of the Eucharist (and celebration for those who wish): The Precentor. (Must be booked in advance.)			