Notices

Easter Day Mattins: Next Sunday (21st April), we kindly request that all those attending the 10am Mattins service leave the Cathedral through the Eastern Arm, following the direction of the Stewards, where you will be able to greet members of the clergy. This is to enable the large numbers expected to attend the Sung Eucharist at 11am to take their seats in order to allow the service to begin promptly. Many thanks. (Precentor)

Residentiary Canon & Chancellor: The Bishop of Chichester seeks to appoint a Residentiary Canon & Chancellor. Please see the Cathedral website for details of the position and an application form.

Deacon Ish is away performing at the Spring Harvest events being held at Butlins in Minehead and Butlins in Skegness. He will be doing late night concerts at both venues plus participating in their special Ruby Celebration service, as this year Spring Harvest are celebrating their 40th anniversary... and Ish has ministered at 38 of them!

Devotional Music: During the first three days of Holy Week, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 6.30pm in the evening, followed by a short devotional recital of music. Visit www.chichestercathedral.org.uk/worship/holy-week-2019 for further details on this and all Holy Week Services, or see the leaflet available at the back of nave.

Easter Garden: A beautiful and symbolic garden which will bloom in time for Easter Day will be created next week in the St Mary Magdalene Chapel. It will contain many locally grown spring flowers, and is a representation of the place of Jesus' burial after his crucifixion and of his resurrection. Jesus' tomb is represented by a hollow trunk of mulberry wood cut from within the Cathedral precincts, and the stone that sealed it by a circle of bark. It is surrounded by flowers and plants which give colour and life, and a reminder of the vibrancy of the new life when Jesus rose again. The Easter Garden will remain in place, topped up with fresh flowers, until just before Pentecost.

University of Chichester Stations of the Cross: A contemporary take on the traditional Passiontide devotion. Fine Art students at the University have created a contemporary art trail round Bishop Otter Campus and all are welcome to come and pray the Stations. For further information contact Revd Dr Alison Green, University Chaplain 07974 835025 alison.green@chi.ac.uk
