Ships of Heaven: Wednesday 6th November, 6.30pm, Vicars' Hall, Chichester Cathedral. Join us to hear Christopher Somerville, the walking correspondent of The Times, talk about his new book The Ships of Heaven - The Private Life of Britain's Cathedrals.

Ships of Heaven is the story of Britain's flotilla of cathedrals, tossed on waves of power and glory, scandal and mayhem for a thousand years. Nowadays these great stone ships seem as solid and unshakeable as any Rock of Ages. But they are leaky old vessels in uncharted waters. They creak and groan, they fail and founder, then resurface against all odds. It's a journey with a motley crew of jolly rogues and prophets, of builders and bishops; painters dangling at a rope's end, monks who watch as their life's work comes crashing down before their eyes. In such colourful company we delve deep into the private life and the uncertain future of these ever-voyaging Ships of Heaven. (Published by Doubleday, 11 April 2019). Admission is £6 and includes a glass of wine or a soft drink. Book at the Cathedral Shop or via the Cathedral website. Organised by the Cathedral Friends.
