ENTRANCE HYMN

Hark! the sound of holy voices, chanting at the crystal sea,
Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, Lord, to thee:
multitude, which none can number,
like the stars in glory stands, clothed in white apparel, holding palms of victory in their hands.

Patriarch and holy prophet, who prepared the way of Christ,
king, apostle, saint, confessor,
martyr and evangelist,
saintly maiden, godly matron, widows who have watched to prayer, joined in holy concert, singing to the Lord of all, are there.

They have come from tribulation, and have washed their robes in blood, washed them in the blood of Jesus;
tried they were, and firm they stood;
gladly, Lord, with thee they suffered;
gladly, Lord, with thee they died,
and by death to life immortal they were born, and glorified.

Now they reign in heavenly glory, now they walk in golden light,
now they drink, as from a river,
holy bliss and infinite;

love and peace they taste for ever,
and all truth and knowledge see in the beatific vision of the blessed Trinity.

God of God, the One-begotten, Light of light, Emmanuel, in whose Body joined together all the saints for ever dwell;
pour upon us of thy fullness,
that we may for evermore God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost adore. Amen.

Words: Christopher Wordsworth (1807-1885)

Music: DEERHURST, James Langran (1835-1909)

COLLECT

Almighty God, who called our forebears to the light of the gospel by the preaching of your servant Wilfrid: help us, who keep his life and labour in remembrance, to glorify your name by following the example of his zeal and perseverance; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING Isaiah 52: 7-10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation, who says to Zion, 'Your God reigns.' Listen! Your sentinels lift up their voices, together they sing for joy; for in plain sight they see the return of the Lord to Zion. Break forth together into singing, you ruins of Jerusalem; for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

PSALM 67

God be merciful unto us, and bless us : and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.
That thy way may be known upon earth : thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God : yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad : for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God : let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase : and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us : and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 1: 18-25

The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,
'I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.'

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe?
Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them.

GOSPEL READING Luke 5: 1-11

While Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed Jesus.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
come ye who hear,
brothers and sisters draw near,
praise him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
shelters thee under his wings, yea, so gently sustaineth:
hast thou not seen
all that is needful hath been granted in what he ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
ponder anew
all the Almighty can do,
he who with love doth befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
who, when the elements madly around thee are raging,
biddeth them cease,
turneth their fury to peace, whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

Praise to the Lord, who when darkness of sin is abounding,
who, when the godless do triumph, all virtue confounding, sheddeth his light,
chaseth the horrors of night, saints with his mercy surrounding.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath come now with praises before him!
Let the Amen
sound from his people again:
gladly for ay we adore him.

Words: Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

Music: LOBE DEN HERREN,

COMMUNION HYMN – please remain seated Christ who has sent us Celtic saints to lead us, faithful and constant, born of contemplation;

gladly we praise you for all holy people sounding your praises.

Forged in the furnace of a burning vision, tempered and steeled, through hardships keen enduring;
swords of the Spirit, may their zeal inspire us driving us onward.

Give us the vision of a Church united,
one mighty river, Catholic and Celtic, mingle today the stream of living water healing our nation.

Father almighty, Son and Holy Spirit, joy of the saints and of the holy angels, to you we bring our praise and adoration now and for ever. Amen.

Words: Editors of New English Praise, 2006 after a hymn to St Wilfrid by Edwin Le Grice (1911-1992)

Music: ST WILFRID OF RIPON, Melody by Christopher Campling (1925-2020), harmony by Robert March (b. 1956)

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God, shepherd of your people, whose servant Wilfrid revealed the loving service of Christ in his ministry as a pastor of your people: by this eucharist in which we share awaken within us the love of Christ and keep us faithful to our Christian calling; through him who laid down his life for us, but is alive and reigns with you, now and for ever.

Amen.

FINAL HYMN

In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer for the saints who before us have found their reward;
when the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed, but now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.

In the morning of life, and at noon, and at even,
he called them away from our worship below;
but not till his love, at the font and the altar, had girt them with grace for the way they should go.

These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
and dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims, and still they were seeking the city of God.

Sing praise, then, for all who here sought and here found
him,
whose journey is ended, whose perils are past:
they believed in the Light; and its glory is round them, where the clouds of earth's sorrows are lifted at last.

Words: William Draper (1855-1923)

Music: ST CATHERINE'S COURT,
Richard Strutt (1848-1927)

Stewardship To all members of our congregations: Please may I invite you to consider prayerfully your financial giving to the Cathedral.

Whatever you do give will go towards maintaining worship and mission here. The Cathedral has an improved financial position but we still face challenging times.
The easiest and most effective way to give is to use the Parish Giving Scheme. If you are already on this, there's no need to do anything – although of course any increase that you can afford is most welcome. If you are not on the scheme, forms are available. They are simple and easy to complete.

Thank you for your attention.

The Very Revd Dr Edward Dowler, Dean of Chichester
