American Patrons

Lady Chapel

Welcome to Chichester Cathedral

Chichester Cathedral has been a landmark to Christian faith, commitment, culture and teaching for over 950 years. With its splendid architecture and precious artefacts, exceptional choral music and services, visitors are invited to experience the Cathedral in a variety of different ways.

Located in the South of England, Chichester Cathedral stands at the heart of the historic Roman city of Chichester, close to where St. Wilfrid established Christianity in Sussex in 681AD.

The Cathedral is the Mother Church to the counties of East and West Sussex. A place of outstanding natural beauty and history-making; it is home to the iconic Seven Sisters chalk cliffs and South Downs National Park and where the Battle of Hastings was fought in 1066.

It is also a place with shared American heritage and home to the Sussex Declaration – the only ceremonial parchment manuscript copy of the American Declaration of Independence outside of Washington DC.
